Re: Letter of Interest ("LOI") for appointment as a Special Magistrate

Dear Mr. Gomez:

I'm pleased to provide you with this cover letter and resume for your consideration for appointment as a Special Magistrate to the Village of Wellington. In addition, I've attached a Certificate of Good Standing from the Florida Bar which demonstrates that I exceed the professional qualification stated in the LOI.

Given that I've always has a strong passion to make South Florida a better community for everyone, I've dedicated my legal career to public service. First, on the county level with Broward and now with the School Board of Palm Beach County. In my present position, I feel that I'm contributing towards students' achievements and success. Since I'm employed full time, I'm not dependent on the Special Magistrate appointment as my primary source of income, rather, I view the appointment as a public service to the residents of Wellington.

While litigating matters in Federal, Circuit and County courts over the last 25 years, I've learned that a neutral and fair application of the law to each party is essential to any proceeding and is paramount for a special magistrate. While working at Broward County, I worked directly with the Consumer Affairs Department Complaint Team to resolve disputes between members of the public and businesses related to home repairs and vehicle towing. In addition, I've provided guidance on interpretation and impact of Federal, State and local regulations on current operations for such departments as transportation, public works, purchasing, facilities construction, maintenance & plant operations, risk management, school police and building code services. I'm eager to translate my diverse legal experiences to serve as an impartial Special Magistrate.

The Village of Wellington deserves an experienced, well-versed and dedicated lawyer to serve as its Special Magistrate, and I welcome the opportunity to be considered for such an important appointment. I appreciate your time and consideration and look forward to discussing this appointment further.

Sincerely,

Hollie Hawn
