

JCPenney is refreshing the interior and exterior of the store with a budget of over $500K. The scope will include fresh interior white paint, updates to fitting rooms and interior spaces, and alignment with the company's nationwide color scheme. The exterior of the building was already painted to the provided scope, as JCPenney was not aware of the ARB process or the paint color requirements. Photos of the current condition are below:

