The map shows the Wellington Environmental Precinct at the Ministry of the Environment, located in the central business district of Wellington. The precinct is highlighted in green and is situated near the waterfront. The map also shows the surrounding urban area, including the Wellington Harbour and the city center. Key locations marked on the map include the Ministry of the Environment, the Wellington Environmental Precinct, and the Wellington Harbour. The map also shows major roads like State Highway 1 and State Highway 2, and various landmarks such as the Wellington Harbour Bridge and the Wellington Harbour.

This architectural site plan illustrates the 'New Village' development in Beijing. The plan shows a curved residential layout with ten numbered blocks (1-10) arranged along a central axis. Block 1 is at the bottom left, and Block 10 is at the top right. The plan includes detailed street layouts, building footprints, and surrounding infrastructure like roads and green spaces. The overall design emphasizes a curved, organic form within a structured urban context.
