RESOLUTION NO. AC2018-05 (STAYSAIL SOUTH LLC LAND SWAP)

Dr. Eidelman made a motion to recommend approval of Resolution No. AC2018-05 with the Conditions of Approval provided. Mr. Fleischer seconded the motion and it passed unanimously (5-0).

V. STAFF COMMENTS

There were no staff comments.

VI. BOARD COMMENTS

Mr. Arellano and Ms. Cleveland asked Mr. O'Dell about the status of manure disposal sites in Wellington. Mr. O'Dell replied Wellington has been working with area organizations and municipalities such as Palm Beach County and Mayor McKinlay to find manure disposal solutions. He described methods such as burning, composting, and recycling shavings. He also stated Wellington is hoping to have a couple transshipment sites running this season.

Ms. Cleveland asked Mr. O'Dell to keep the committee updated any new manure disposal information.

The committee discussed changing procedure for call-in attendance at meetings. The committee decided to leave the policy as it is for now.

VII. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Peter Granata of 14337 Draft Horse Lane stated he does not like the asphalt millings for equestrian trails and would like all the trails to be grass.

Barry Schimmel of 14803 Halter Road also stated he would like to have grass trails instead of the asphalt millings and stated that drivers speed through equestrian areas. He suggested a slower speed limit in equestrian areas.

Cynthia Gardner of 13268 Polo Club Road stated the stantions are too narrow for the horses and are not necessary. She also suggested Wellington should have bridle trails where people could work their horses. She suggested galloping track-type material.

VIII. ADJOURNMENT

The meeting adjourned at 8:18 pm.
